Tea & Table

Pairing, afternoon tea and cooking with tea

Tea is a table drink. It goes with breakfast, meals and dessert, and it also goes into the pot as seasoning, broth, smoke and syrup. This guide teaches you to pair teas and dishes with the same logic as wine pairing, without rigid rules and with plenty of pleasure.

You will find pairing principles, a pairing chart, a complete afternoon tea menu and twenty recipes that use tea as an ingredient (including scones, sandwiches and Brazilian sweets), a brunch and a paired dinner.

01

Start with the principles

Intensity with intensity.

02

Use the chart

To quickly pick the tea for dinner.

03

Cook with tea

Ten recipes, from savoury to sweet.

CHAPTER I

Pairing

Principles and pairings

Pairing means making tea and food better together than apart. Sometimes by similarity (roasted with roasted), sometimes by contrast (astringency cutting through fat).

01 Five principles

02 Pairing chart

03 Tea with cheese and sweets

CHAPTER I

Five principles

They are not rules: they are shortcuts to get it right more often.

1. Intensity

Weight with weight

Delicate dishes want delicate teas; intense dishes, full-bodied ones. A white tea vanishes next to barbecue; pu-erh flattens raw fish.

2. Similarity

Echoing notes

Roasted with roasted (hojicha and sourdough), floral with floral (jasmine and white fruit), smoky with smoky (lapsang and grills).

3. Contrast

Opposites that complete

An astringent black tea cuts through the fat of cheese or butter. A grassy green balances the sweetness of ripe fruit.

4. Cleansing

Resetting the palate

Tannins and heat clear fat from the mouth between bites. That is why tea works so well with fried food and pastry.

5. Sweetness

Watch the sugar

Dessert should be sweeter than the drink. Sweetened tea next to dessert tastes flat; unsweetened, it reveals the fruit and spices of the dish.

And temperature?

Hot or iced

Hot tea clears fat better; iced tea refreshes spicy dishes. In summer, an oolong cold brew stands in for white wine.

CHAPTER I

Pairing chart

From lightest to most intense. Pick the tea row or find the dish in the column.

TEA	PAIRS WITH	AVOID
White	raw fish, white fruit, fresh cheese, salads	strong sauces, dark chocolate
Japanese green (sencha)	sushi, steamed vegetables, tempura, seafood	red meat, very sugary desserts
Chinese green	dim sum, chicken, eggs, herby dishes	heavy frying
Jasmine	Thai food, tropical fruit, sweet and sour chicken	smoked food
Light oolong	prawns, scallops, soft cheeses, peach	extreme heat
Roasted oolong	duck, pork, mushrooms, nuts, walnut cakes	raw fish
Darjeeling	omelette, quiche, lamb, fruit tarts	heavy tomato sauce
Full black (Assam)	full breakfast, meats, aged cheese, chocolate cake	delicate fish
Lapsang souchong	barbecue, bacon, smoked cheese, feijoada	delicate sweets
Pu-erh	fatty dishes, pot roast, mushrooms	delicate fresh fruit
Hojicha and genmaicha	bread, rice, tempura, caramel desserts	very acidic fruit
Yerba mate	barbecue, empanadas, chipa, dulce de leche	sushi

BOTÂNORA TIP

When in doubt, a medium-roast oolong is the table's wild card: floral enough for fish and roasted enough for meat.

Occasions

OCCASION	SUGGESTION
Breakfast	Assam or breakfast blend; toasted mate
Light lunch	Sencha, Chinese green, iced oolong
Dinner with meat	Roasted oolong, pu-erh, lapsang
Spicy food	Iced jasmine, iced Ceylon
After dinner	Hojicha, rooibos, herbal digestif

CHAPTER I

Tea with cheese and sweets

Two tables that usually call for wine and that tea handles beautifully.

Cheese board

CHEESE	TEA	WHY
Fresh white cheese, ricotta, burrata	White or Chinese green	Lightness with lightness
Brie, camembert	First-flush Darjeeling, light oolong	Floral against creaminess
Canastra, gouda, parmesan	Roasted oolong, Assam	Roast and body stand up to salt
Gorgonzola, roquefort	Pu-erh, black tea with honey	Earthy and sweet against the sharpness
Goat cheese	Sencha, iced hibiscus	Tart and green with tart

Brazilian sweets

SWEET	TEA
Brigadeiro, chocolate cake	Assam, pu-erh, rooibos with cacao
Pão de queijo (cheese bread)	Toasted mate, genmaicha
Cornmeal cake, sweet couscous	Hojicha, Ceylon
Quindim, flan	Light oolong, Earl Grey
Guava paste with cheese	Darjeeling, roasted oolong
Dulce de leche	Mate, lapsang (contrast)

BOTÂNORA TIP

Build a board with three cheeses and three teas and let people cross the combinations. It is the best pairing lesson there is.

CHAPTER II

Afternoon tea

A complete menu

English afternoon tea has a fixed structure: savouries, scones and sweets, served from bottom to top. Here is a menu adapted to the Brazilian kitchen, with the order of service and the tea for each course.

01 The menu

02 Planning and serving

CHAPTER II

The menu

For six people. Three teas, three tiers.

Bottom tier

Savouries

Thin crustless sandwiches: cucumber with cream cheese and mint; egg with herb mayonnaise; chicken with apricot. Plus small cheese breads and mini quiches.

Tea: Darjeeling or sencha

Middle tier

Scones

Plain and orange scones, with berry jam and clotted cream (or whipped cream). Jam or cream first? Each region defends its own.

Tea: Breakfast blend or Assam with milk

Top tier

Sweets

Earl Grey loaf (recipe 6), fruit tartlets, spoon brigadeiros and madeleines. Small, two-bite pieces.

Tea: Oolong or rooibos

Quantities for six

ITEM	PER PERSON	TOTAL
Finger sandwiches	4	24
Hot savouries	2	12
Scones	2	12
Sweets	3	18
Tea	3 to 4 cups	≈ 4 L, in three pots

Start savoury, end sweet, and never let the pot go cold.

CHAPTER II

Planning and serving

Timeline

WHEN	WHAT
2 days before	Earl Grey loaf (it improves the next day), jam, shopping
1 day before	Portioned frozen scone dough; sandwich fillings; brigadeiros
3 hours before	Assemble sandwiches and cover with a damp cloth
1 hour before	Scones in the oven; table set; filtered water ready
At the time	First pot; second pot when the first is half empty

The table

- A warmed teapot, strainer and a saucer for it.
- Cold milk in a small jug, lemon slices, sugar cubes.
- A jug of hot water for anyone who likes weaker tea.
- Small labels with the name of each tea and filling.

Serving the tea

Warm the pot with hot water and discard. Use 1 teaspoon of leaves per cup and steep for the tea's time. Strain it all into another pot so it does not turn bitter: the second round should taste like the first. Milk goes into the cup after the tea, so each guest can set the colour.

> BOTÂNORA TIP
> A jug of oolong or hibiscus cold brew makes the table beautiful and serves anyone who does not want a hot drink on warm days.

CHAPTER III

Cooking with tea

Ten recipes

Tea is a seasoning. It can become broth, salt, smoke, syrup or batter. In these recipes it is an ingredient, not a side. Measures: tsp ≈ 5 ml, tbsp ≈ 15 ml, cup ≈ 240 ml.

01 Tea-marbled Eggs
02 Tea-smoked Chicken
03 Green Tea Salt
04 Ochazuke
05 Tea-poached Prunes
06 Earl Grey Loaf Cake
07 Matcha Panna Cotta
08 Hojicha Rice Pudding
09 Hibiscus Vinaigrette
10 Rooibos & Orange Cookies

01 Tea-marbled Eggs

The Chinese classic: cracked shell and a marble pattern.

Black tea · 20 min + overnight · 6 eggs · Easy

INGREDIENTS

6	eggs
2 tbsp	black tea (or lapsang)
3 tbsp	soy sauce
2	star anise
1	cinnamon stick
600 ml	water

Finish. Halve and serve with sesame.

METHOD

1. Boil the eggs for 8 min and cool in cold water.
2. Tap the shells gently with a spoon, cracking all over without peeling.
3. Simmer water, tea, soy and spices for 5 min. Add the eggs and cook 15 min more on low heat.
4. Leave the eggs in the liquid in the fridge for 12 to 24 h. Peel when serving.

BARISTA TIP The longer in the liquid, the darker the pattern and the more seasoned the white.

02 Tea-smoked Chicken

Pan smoking, no smoker needed.

Lapsang souchong · 50 min · 4 servings · Technique

INGREDIENTS

600 g	boneless chicken thighs
3 tbsp	lapsang or black tea
3 tbsp	uncooked rice
2 tbsp	brown sugar
1 strip	orange peel
to taste	salt, garlic and soy

Finish. Thin slices with rice and cucumber.

METHOD

1. Season the chicken and steam or roast until nearly done (about 20 min).
2. Line a heavy pan with foil. Scatter the tea, rice, sugar and peel.
3. Set a rack on top, the chicken on the rack, and cover tightly (seal with more foil).
4. Medium-high heat until it smokes, then medium for 12 min. Turn off and wait 5 min before opening.

BARISTA TIP Open the window and turn on the hood. Use an old pan: burnt sugar stains the bottom.

03 Green Tea Salt

A seasoning for fish, vegetables and eggs.

Sencha or matcha · 10 min · 1 small jar · Easy

INGREDIENTS

1 tbsp	sencha
3 tbsp	flaky or coarse salt
1 tsp	dried lemon zest (optional)

METHOD

1. Toast the sencha in a dry pan for 1 min, just until fragrant.
2. Cool and grind in a mortar with half the salt.
3. Mix with the rest of the salt and the zest. Store in a closed jar.

BARISTA TIP Even faster with matcha: 1 tsp matcha to 3 tbsp salt, no toasting. A classic with tempura.

04 Ochazuke

Rice with green tea: Japanese comfort food.

Green tea · 10 min · 1 bowl · Easy

INGREDIENTS

1 cup	cooked Japanese rice
200 ml	hot sencha or genmaicha
50 g	flaked grilled salmon
to taste	nori, sesame, spring onion
½ tsp	soy sauce

Finish. Wasabi, if you like.

METHOD

1. Put the hot rice in a bowl with the salmon on top.
2. Brew strong tea (4 g, 80 °C, 1 min 30 s).
3. Pour the tea over the rice halfway up and finish with soy, nori and sesame.

BARISTA TIP A good use for leftover rice. Also works with umeboshi instead of salmon.

05 Tea-poached Prunes

A dark, fragrant winter dessert.

Black tea · 25 min · 4 servings · Easy

INGREDIENTS

250 g	prunes
400 ml	strong black tea (Earl Grey is great)
3 tbsp	sugar
1	cinnamon stick
1 strip	orange peel

Finish. With Greek yoghurt or vanilla ice cream.

METHOD

1. Brew strong tea (8 g, 4 min) and strain.
2. Bring to a simmer with sugar, cinnamon and peel. Add the prunes.
3. Simmer gently for 15 min until the syrup thickens slightly. Cool in the syrup.

BARISTA TIP They keep a week in the fridge and improve from the second day.

06 Earl Grey Loaf Cake

Bergamot in the crumb and the glaze.

Earl Grey · 1 h 10 min · 1 loaf tin · With milk · Intermediate

INGREDIENTS

120 ml	milk
2 bags	Earl Grey (≈ 4 g)
120 g	butter
150 g	sugar
2	eggs
180 g	self-raising flour
100 g + 2 tbsp	icing sugar + strong tea (glaze)

Finish. Lemon zest on the glaze.

METHOD

1. Warm the milk, steep the contents of the bags for 10 min and cool (do not strain: the leaves go in).
2. Beat butter and sugar until pale. Add the eggs one at a time.
3. Alternate the flour and the tea milk, mixing briefly.
4. Bake at 170 °C for 45 to 50 min. Once cool, cover with the sugar and tea glaze.

BARISTA TIP Grind the leaves in a mortar before steeping: you get fine specks in the crumb instead of pieces.

07 Matcha Panna Cotta

Green, wobbly, lightly sweet.

Matcha · 15 min + 4 h · 4 glasses · With milk · Intermediate

INGREDIENTS

300 ml	double cream
200 ml	milk
60 g	sugar
6 g	culinary matcha
8 g	unflavoured powdered gelatine

Finish. Red berry coulis or honey.

METHOD

1. Bloom the gelatine in 40 ml of cold water.
2. Heat cream, milk and sugar until almost boiling. Turn off.
3. Sift the matcha into a bowl and whisk with a little of the hot cream until smooth. Combine with the rest.
4. Dissolve the gelatine, pour into glasses and chill for 4 h.

BARISTA TIP Whisking the matcha in a little liquid first prevents lumps no whisk can fix later.

08 Hojicha Rice Pudding

Brazilian rice pudding with roasted tea: caramel notes.

Hojicha · 45 min · 6 servings · With milk · Easy

INGREDIENTS

1 cup	white rice
1 L	milk
3 tbsp	hojicha leaves
1 can	condensed milk
1 pinch	salt

Finish. Ground hojicha on top.

METHOD

1. Cook the rice in 2 cups of water until absorbed.
2. Warm the milk with the hojicha for 10 min on low heat and strain.
3. Add the milk to the rice and cook, stirring, for 20 min.
4. Add the condensed milk and salt; 5 more min.

BARISTA TIP It firms up as it cools. To serve cold, leave it a little looser on the heat.

09 Hibiscus Vinaigrette

Ruby, tart and fruity for salads.

Hibiscus · 10 min · 200 ml · Easy

INGREDIENTS

2 tbsp	hibiscus
100 ml	boiling water
1 tbsp	honey
1 tsp	Dijon mustard
80 ml	olive oil
to taste	salt and pepper

Finish. Green leaves, goat cheese and walnuts.

METHOD

1. Steep the hibiscus 10 min and strain, pressing well. Reduce on the heat to 50 ml.
2. While still warm, add the honey and mustard.
3. Shake with the olive oil in a closed jar and season.

BARISTA TIP It replaces vinegar: the acidity comes from the hibiscus itself.

10 Rooibos & Orange Cookies

Caffeine-free, good for children's snacks.

Rooibos · 30 min · ≈ 20 cookies · Easy

INGREDIENTS

110 g	butter
100 g	brown sugar
1	egg
170 g	plain flour
1 tbsp	finely ground rooibos
1	orange zest
½ tsp	baking soda

Finish. White chocolate chips, if you like.

METHOD

1. Beat butter and sugar. Add the egg and zest.
2. Mix in the flour, rooibos and baking soda.
3. Roll into balls, flatten and bake at 180 °C for 10 to 12 min.

BARISTA TIP Grind the rooibos to powder in a blender or mortar: whole needles stay hard in the mouth.

REFERENCE

Tea as an ingredient

Five ways to take any tea into the kitchen.

FORM	HOW TO	USE IN
Strong infusion	Double the leaf, normal time	broths, stews, poaching, rice
Infused milk	Leaves in warm milk for 10 min	custards, cakes, ice cream, ganache
Powder	Leaves ground in a mortar and sifted	doughs, crusts, seasoned salt
Smoke	Tea, rice and sugar heated in a pan	chicken, fish, tofu, eggs
Syrup	Strong infusion + sugar, reduced	cakes, fruit, drinks

BOTÂNORA TIP

Cooking infusions can be strong, but not long: excess time brings bitterness that oven heat will not remove.

CHAPTER IV

More recipes and menus

From afternoon tea to dinner

The scones and sandwiches from the chapter II menu, savoury dishes with tea, Brazilian sweets with tea and two full menus: a brunch and a four-course paired dinner.

01 Classic Scones

02 Afternoon Tea Sandwiches

03 Jasmine-scented Rice

04 Lapsang-cured Salmon

05 Black Tea Marinade

06 Mango & Black Tea Chutney

07 Earl Grey Brigadeiro

08 Chai Flan

09 Smoky Truffles

10 Hibiscus Jam

11 Classic Scones

Tall and tender, for jam and cream.

For afternoon tea · 30 min · 10 scones · With milk · Intermediate

INGREDIENTS

300 g	plain flour
1 tbsp	baking powder
50 g	sugar
80 g	cold butter, cubed
150 ml	cold milk
1	egg (half for brushing)
1 pinch	salt

Finish. Hibiscus jam (recipe 20) and cream.

METHOD

1. Rub the flour, baking powder, sugar, salt and butter with your fingertips into crumbs.
2. Add the milk and half the beaten egg and bring together without kneading.
3. Pat to 3 cm, cut with a round cutter without twisting and brush the tops.
4. Bake at 220 °C for 12 to 14 min.

BARISTA TIP Twisting the cutter seals the edges and the scone will not rise. Cut straight down.

12 Afternoon Tea Sandwiches

Two classic fillings, crustless.

For afternoon tea · 20 min · 24 sandwiches · With milk · Easy

INGREDIENTS

12 slices	thin sandwich bread
½	cucumber, thinly sliced
150 g	cream cheese with chopped mint
3	chopped hard-boiled eggs
3 tbsp	mayonnaise with chives
to taste	butter, salt and pepper

METHOD

1. Butter every slice thinly: it keeps the bread from going soggy.
2. Cucumber with cream cheese on half; egg with mayonnaise on the rest.
3. Close, remove the crusts and cut each into four triangles or three fingers.

BARISTA TIP Salt the cucumber 10 min before and pat dry: the sandwich stays crisp.

13 Jasmine-scented Rice

White rice cooked in tea.

Jasmine · 25 min · 4 servings · Easy

INGREDIENTS

1 cup	long-grain or jasmine rice
2 cups	jasmine green tea (3 g, 80 °C, 3 min)
1 tbsp	oil
1 tsp	salt

Finish. Spring onion and sesame.

METHOD

1. Rinse the rice until the water runs clear.
2. Sauté in the oil for 1 min, add the strained tea and salt.
3. Cover and cook on low heat for 15 min. Rest 5 min covered.

BARISTA TIP Pairs with fish, sweet and sour chicken and stir-fried vegetables.

14 Lapsang-cured Salmon

Smoky gravlax without a smoker.

Lapsang souchong · 15 min + 36 h · 6 servings · Intermediate

INGREDIENTS

500 g	skin-on salmon fillet, previously frozen
60 g	coarse salt
50 g	brown sugar
2 tbsp	ground lapsang souchong
1	lemon zest

Finish. Toast, sour cream and dill.

METHOD

1. Mix the salt, sugar, tea and zest.
2. Coat the salmon completely, wrap in cling film and weigh it down.
3. Fridge for 36 h, turning every 12 h.
4. Rinse off the cure, pat dry and slice very thinly.

BARISTA TIP Use fish frozen for at least 7 days at -18 °C first (kills parasites). Keeps 5 days in the fridge. Not suitable during pregnancy.

15 Black Tea Marinade

For chicken, pork and ribs.

Black tea · 10 min + 4 h · for 1 kg of meat · Easy

INGREDIENTS

250 ml	strong black tea, cold
3 tbsp	soy sauce
2 tbsp	honey
3	crushed garlic cloves
1 tbsp	grated ginger
1 tsp	black pepper

METHOD

1. Mix all the ingredients.
2. Cover the meat and leave in the fridge for 4 to 12 h.
3. Roast or grill, brushing with the marinade reduced on the stove for 5 min.

BARISTA TIP Tea tannins help tenderise and give the meat a dark, glossy colour.

16 Mango & Black Tea Chutney

For cheese, meat and sandwiches.

Black tea · 40 min · 1 jar · 300 g · Easy

INGREDIENTS

2	firm mangoes, cubed
100 ml	strong Ceylon black tea
80 g	brown sugar
60 ml	cider vinegar
½	onion, chopped
1 tsp	grated ginger and a pinch of chilli flakes

METHOD

1. Put everything in a pan.
2. Simmer gently, stirring now and then, for 30 min, until thick.
3. Store in a scalded jar.

BARISTA TIP Keeps 3 weeks in the fridge. Perfect with aged cheese and Assam tea.

17 Earl Grey Brigadeiro

Milk chocolate with bergamot.

Earl Grey · 30 min + 2 h · ≈ 25 pieces · With milk · Easy

INGREDIENTS

200 ml	cream
2 bags	Earl Grey
1 can	condensed milk
2 tbsp	cocoa powder
1 tbsp	butter

Finish. Chocolate sprinkles or cocoa.

METHOD

1. Warm the cream, steep the Earl Grey for 10 min and squeeze the bags.
2. Combine the cream with the condensed milk, cocoa and butter.
3. Cook, stirring, until it pulls away from the base (15 min). Cool and roll.

BARISTA TIP Infusing into fat (cream) pulls far more aroma than water does.

18 Chai Flan

Brazilian flan with spices.

Chai · 1 h 20 + 6 h · 1 tin · 8 servings · With milk · Intermediate

INGREDIENTS

1 can	condensed milk
400 ml	milk
3	eggs
2 bags	black tea
1	cinnamon stick, 4 cardamom, 3 cloves
150 g	sugar for the caramel

METHOD

1. Warm the milk with the spices for 5 min, turn off, add the tea for 5 min and strain. Cool.
2. Melt the sugar into caramel and coat the tin.
3. Blend the chai milk with the condensed milk and eggs; pour into the tin.
4. Bake in a water bath at 180 °C for 1 h. Chill 6 h and turn out.

BARISTA TIP The milk must be cold before blending with the eggs, or the flan gets little holes.

19 Smoky Truffles

Dark chocolate and lapsang.

Lapsang souchong · 20 min + 3 h · ≈ 20 truffles · With milk · Intermediate

INGREDIENTS

200 g	60–70% chocolate, chopped
150 ml	double cream
1 tbsp	lapsang souchong
1 tbsp	butter
to taste	cocoa powder

METHOD

1. Heat the cream until almost boiling, add the tea and cover for 10 min. Strain, pressing.
2. Reheat the cream and pour over the chocolate. Wait 2 min and stir until smooth.
3. Stir in the butter. Chill 3 h.
4. Roll into balls and coat in cocoa.

BARISTA TIP Swap the lapsang for Earl Grey, chai or hojicha: the technique is the same.

20 Hibiscus Jam

Ruby and tart, for scones and cheese.

Hibiscus · 40 min · 1 jar · 300 g · Easy

INGREDIENTS

20 g	dried hibiscus
400 ml	boiling water
2	apples, grated with skin
200 g	sugar
½	lemon (juice)

METHOD

1. Steep the hibiscus for 15 min and strain, pressing well.
2. Cook the tea with the apple, sugar and lemon over medium heat, stirring, for 25 min.
3. Test on a cold saucer: if it wrinkles when pushed, it is ready. Pot hot into a scalded jar.

BARISTA TIP The apple provides the pectin that sets it; no store-bought pectin needed.

MORE RECIPES AND MENUS

Tea brunch

For 6 to 8 people, on an unhurried Sunday.

MOMENT	FOOD	TEA
Arrival	Fruit, yoghurt and granola	Oolong and peach cold brew
Savoury	Scrambled eggs, lapsang-cured salmon (recipe 14), cheese bread	Darjeeling or breakfast tea with milk
Warm	Pancakes, butter and honey	Masala chai
Sweet	Scones with hibiscus jam (recipes 11 and 20), Earl Grey loaf	Hojicha or rooibos

Organisation

- The day before: cured salmon, jam, portioned scone dough and cold brew.
- One hour before: scones in the oven, table set and water ready for the teas.
- Always offer one caffeine-free option and one iced.

A good brunch is one where the host sits down too.

MORE RECIPES AND MENUS

Four-course paired dinner

One tea per course, from lightest to most intense, like a wine list.

1. Starter

Leaf salad, goat cheese and hibiscus vinaigrette

Tea: flash-chilled sencha. Green and fresh, it wakes the palate.

2. Fish

Grilled fish with jasmine rice

Tea: light oolong in a gaiwan. Floral and creamy, it accompanies without covering.

3. Main

Pork with black tea marinade

Tea: roasted oolong or pu-erh. Roast and earth stand up to fat and caramel.

4. Dessert

Smoky truffles and chai flan

Tea: second-flush Darjeeling or hojicha. Dried fruit and caramel notes close the meal.

Service

- Serve 60 to 80 ml of each tea, in small cups or wine glasses.
- Brew each tea when its course is served; never let it wait.
- Still water between courses to cleanse the palate.

MORE RECIPES AND MENUS

Tea instead of wine

For anyone who does not drink, is pregnant, is driving or simply prefers it: tea offers the same conversation at the table.

IF THE DISH CALLS FOR...	SERVE THIS TEA	SERVING TEMPERATURE
Sparkling wine	White tea cold brew with sparkling water	6–8 °C
Light white	Sencha or Chinese green, cold brew	8–10 °C
Full white	Light oolong, cold brew	10–12 °C
Rosé	Hibiscus with rooibos, iced	8 °C
Light red	Second-flush Darjeeling	warm or 14 °C
Full red	Shou pu-erh or roasted oolong	hot
Dessert wine	Oriental Beauty or hojicha with honey	hot

BOTÂNORA TIP

Cold brew served in a wine glass changes perception: the aroma concentrates and the drink becomes the star of the table.
